

Cheri Mason

Keynote Speaker, Author, & CEO

"Change is certain and constant in the workplace. As a leader, staying ahead means adapting and thriving alongside it. As employees redefine success, both leaders and employees seek to matter. Imagine if there is a secret ingredient to leadership that delivers quick wins and sustained organizational success? Ready to unlock the secret? Invite me to speak and let's uncover these powerful insights together."

Cheryl L. Mason, J.D., is a TEDx speaker, author, and CEO of Catalyst Leadership Management. As the first woman and military spouse to serve as CEO/Chairman of the VA Board of Veterans' Appeals, she leads with a morale-boosting, trust-based, people-centric approach. Mason wrote "Dare to Relate: Leading with a Fierce Heart." In addition to her TEDx, she was featured on NBC's Charlotte Today, I-Heart radio talk shows, and over 50 podcasts. She contributes to online journals like HR.com and CorporateVision-News.com. Mason consults on leadership development and regularly speaks at conferences and corporate trainings.

"Cheri inspires women from all walks of life to lead, relate, thrive and positively impact people!" - Nichole Coleman, Executive Director Hancock County Veterans Service Office

"Cheri, through her speaking and writing, shares powerful leadership lessons, most critically that the answer is always in the people." - Jen Marr, Founder and CEO of Inspiring Comfort, LLC.

SEEN ON NBC TV

FEATURED BY

